

AutonoMe

EdTech support for vulnerable people in Social Care

William Britton

Founder, Chief Executive

will@autono.me.uk

Company Purpose

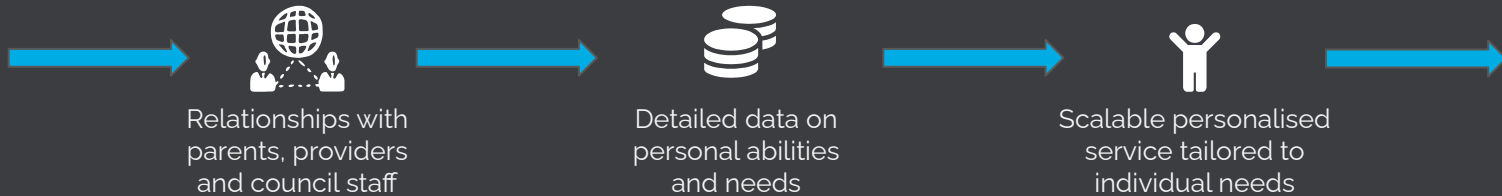

Embed the principles of education into social care settings using enabling technology to support vulnerable people to be independent

We enable Local Authorities and service providers to deliver better support by combining technology with people

Proven, Trusted, Innovative

AutonoMe Pathway

App

Personalised instructional videos, notifications and reminders to support tasks in home and the workplace

Dashboard

On demand data to evaluate impact and progress towards independence, providing greater insight into abilities and support needs

Vulnerable citizens' needs

- Access to flexible, personalised support available 24/7
- Opportunity to regularly inform circle of support of needs
- Regular and consistent support and reviews
- Celebrating achievements and planning next steps

Proven, Trusted, Innovative

AutonoMe

- ✓ Specialist skills provider enabling independence
 - Over 30 years experience in person centred approaches to supporting vulnerable people
 - Innovative, multi-disciplinary team with experience in education, technology, employment and social care
- ✓ Proven solutions to complement pre-existing support plans and staffing
- ✓ Delivered over 11,000 hours of support to more than 400 users across 25 partners

Proven, Trusted, Enabling Independence

Partners

Proven, Trusted, Innovative

AutonoMe combines technology with people

Proven, Trusted, Innovative

William Britton
Founder, Chief Executive

Web: autono.me.uk

Phone: 0117 205 0654

Mail: will@autono.me.uk info@autono.me.uk